

Feedback on Education Programs

Northern and remote Indigenous communities that requested and received a delivery of school bags and books for First Nations, Métis and Inuit children and youth submitted testimonials about the impact of the program.

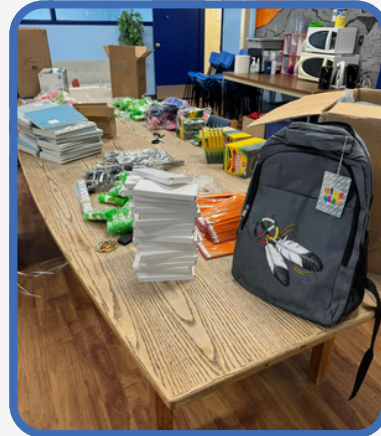

BACK TO SCHOOL

“True North Aid prioritized giving students the best possible chance to receive a stress-free education by providing essential supplies that all students need to be successful students.”

- Skyler, Land and Language Cultural Coordinator, Cumberland House, SK

“True North Aid made a significant impact on our community by addressing our needs effectively. Parents expressed deep gratitude, relieved of one major concern at the start of the school year. Meanwhile, the youth were thrilled to receive beautifully designed backpacks filled with essential supplies, enhancing their excitement and readiness for the upcoming academic year.”

- Diane, Youth Worker, Grand Cache, AB

“Without the aid of True North Aid, many of our students would not have the proper school supplies to attend school. So thank you from the bottom of our hearts for the support you have given our community.”

- Cindy, Landbased Coordinator, Green Lake, SK

NORTHERN READS

“It was like Christmas. I opened all the boxes and looked at all the books one by one. Even after three weeks, I still head down to the library to have a look at them. The books go beyond the covers and pages, they are about people, ideas, cultures, stories, events, places, dreams and so much more. Thank you so much for this gift.”

- Daniel, Educator, Inukjuak, Nunavik, QC

“Honestly, I was amazed at the amount of books that were written or illustrated by Indigenous authors. Just the fact that this project brings awareness to Indigenous professionals in writing is a success. Then, the fact that our school was able to access these books and have copies - WOW. It's incredible.”

- Sarah, Teacher, Kuujuaq, Nunavik, QC

“Words cannot begin to describe the gratitude we feel for the support we received from True North Aid. It feels like a dream come true to have received so many beautiful books by Indigenous Canadian authors for our school. Every book will help to open all our students' eyes to the beauty and depth of Indigenous traditions and culture. Every book will help foster a sense of pride and connection between our Inuit students and other Indigenous people throughout Canada. We are beyond impressed with True North Aid's commitment to assist and empower remote Indigenous communities like ours. Thank you, True North Aid!”
